Place a small amount of paint in each circle that matches the color name.

Spread the paint around the circle with your fingers so they mix together where the circles overlap.

What secondary color is created by mixing colors?